Wendell, as we get to know him, I request that you write me:

1. Individual report of Saxon German organizations, leading individuals, activities and participation in federalistic organization in Bavaria.
2. Individual report on the LOCHM movement which calls for discussion in the SPD and is the sworn enemy of everything Saxon.

This will be a very interesting experience for you which will show me your capabilities and possibilities, and for me, it will be the beginning of organizational building of our cooperative endeavors.

I await your reply and remain with friendly greetings,

Your

I am writing you I sent you a reply to your letter, in which you received my letter, but unfortunately as date I have not received your reply. Your letter was very interesting which arrived with it an assurance of your financial position (I think) (or at least comprehension). I will know that you are really a great living organism, just as all the other people, and that you live in a warm atmosphere (or in such manner) which does not let you forgetfully realize the functions which you carry out in the world. Tomorrow I want to drink and met a very good friend of yours, and after that, over a glass of good Slavonian wine, we reminisced about former times and you have informed that you will be celebrating your holiday on 25 May. Enclosed in this letter I am sending you DM 800, which please use in the celebration of your holiday and remember me on this day for I will be drinking to your health.

I am taking this liberty of warning you that, according to information which reached us, your political assignments within the American liaison set-up (go-between) have, as a project, the destruction of your movement which you are so long to build up. Unfortunately, because of security reasons, I cannot tell you more, but believe there will be an opportunity to exchange our experiences. This will, of course, depend mainly on you. I think that I do not have to convince you that the connections I have at my disposal have long range possibilities just as you have personally, and we are prepared to assist you materially and morally in your matter.

In anticipation of your reply, I wish to remain with sincerity,

Yours
